MEMORANDUM FOR:

[Redacted]

25X1

SUBJECT:

Proposed Study on Economic Development and Political Stability in India

The [Redacted] proposal for the subject study has been reviewed here.

25X1

It is believed that this material will be generally useful to many agencies of the Government. However, since the problem under study is one with which we are only indirectly concerned, there are no specific aspects of the study which we can usefully ask to be investigated. We appreciate the opportunity to review this proposal and will be interested in such future action as you may take.
